ACNA SPRING COUNCIL MEETING 2026: The Fremont Experience

By Bro. Dony Rondilla

The ACNA Spring Council Meeting held on March 27–29, 2026 in Las Vegas lived up to its fitting theme—“The Fremont Experience”, a spectacle of dazzling lights from the overhead canopy, the pulse of live music, street performers, and a colorful array of characters that made every step outside an adventure. It was an atmosphere that energized not just the senses, but also the camaraderie among brothers.

The event officially commenced on Friday, March 27, with the Board of Directors meeting. Presided over by ACNA Chairman of the Board, Brod Sonny Dancel, the session was attended by 24 alumni association presidents. The Board tackled key matters for the organization, including the review and approval of programs and the annual budget—laying the foundation for the administration’s direction in the coming year.

Saturday, March 28, marked the Council Meeting proper, presided over by ACNA President Brod Art Rivera, who outlined his administration’s vision and strategic plans for the term. ACNA Secretary Sis Jen Evangelista, past president of APOGOLA, documented the minutes and coordinated video submissions of committee reports, ensuring a well-organized Council Meeting. The Committee reports by various executive officers provided comprehensive updates on key initiatives, including the IHMDO project and financial reports. A significant outcome of the meeting was the recognition of ACNA’s newest Alumni Association members, APO-Seattle and APO-Montreal Ottawa.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings,

Welcome to Spring! April is here, Happy Easter to everyone! The sweetest holiday of them all, I know many of you had fulfilled hiding chocolate eggs and chasing your lovable grandchildren around, and we also knew it is a great day for all Brothers and Sisters getting together with their family, children and grandchildren.

At the previous ACNA Spring Meeting, held at Las Vegas, we'd acquired some knowledge and skills as we played a part on every topic discussed. We all know the before and after, fellowship follows and the camaraderie begins to grow more between brothers and sisters who attended and was overwhelming, that is why the question they always ask "what really binds us together?" It is so great to see some for the first time and old brothers or sisters wither so ever disperse around North America. We are proud to obtain and recognize two more Alumni Association, namely Montreal-Ottawa and Seattle AA's.

Next, our Annual Food Bank Volunteer Service at City of Industry, on which we help pack numerous boxes for the homeless families in LA County, and are happily chaired by Sis Hazel Hermoso. We would like to extend our big gratitude to all who supported this project, We thank you!

As Summer approaches, everyone is excited for our upcoming APOGLA Bro Toti Ayo Annual Camping this May 22 to 25 at Emma Wood State Beach at Ventura County, chaired by our very own Bro Joel Carbon. For more information or details please do not hesitate to approach Bro Joel Carbon or any officers this April meeting.

Lastly, we are happy to announce that we have 95 fully paid members out of 140+ recorded in our database, and this is the end of 1st quarter of this year. We are optimistic that we can still tap other inactive members through our Area Coordinators and other members. With that being said, let us all work together for the betterment of our APOGLA.

Many hands make light work!

At your Service,
Bro Jobee Jovellanos

Bursting Life Bubbles

By Bro. Ferdie Yambot

Let's all be honest to ourselves... it is very normal that even if we are living to the fullest, we will not only have notable achievements but likewise, problems/issues, big and small, creeping along. It is best if we recognize them early for proper addressing before they negatively affect our daily lives.

Admittedly, some are more skilled than others in coping and tackling adversities; it does not exempt the less abled ones from confronting the prevailing issues. To that end, the Shrink offers the following methodical approach that can help with the complex task of addressing life problems.

Effective life problem solving involves staying calm, defining specific issues, brainstorming options, and taking action rather than just worrying. Key strategies include breaking complex problems into smaller manageable steps distinguishing between solvable and uncontrollable "what if" scenario and consistently reviewing outcomes.

A workable framework:

- Define the problem. Be specific and concrete; write it down to move from vague stress to a tangible problem.
- Avoiding emotional reactivity- remaining calm as irrational thinking often hinders solution generation.
- Brainstorm solutions. Generate multiple options without immediately judging them thinking in pictures considering past experiences.
- Evaluate and act. Choose the best option based on practicality, weigh their pros and cons and create an action plan.
- Review- After taking action, reflect on what went well and what didn't.

If nothing else, seek help! Seeking help is never a sign of weakness; it is a distinct sign of strength to involve trusted friends or professionals that one can resort to when overwhelmed.

In conclusion, I must confess that the Shrink is not an expert on "Bursting Bubbles" as living my fullest with my loving family, I encountered only a few. The biggest one I burst into was about my health, my renal failure. When my Nephrologist told me that I will need to do dialysis, I responded bluntly I'd rather die. Then later, I realized that I must not be selfish and think of family's welfare in making such decisions. So, I went ahead and submitted to dialysis because I want to see my 9 grandkids grow and become well disciplined people. On the lighter side I didn't want to die UGLY. Ha ha ha

Another key development was the move to realign the ACNA Convention to even-numbered years, a proposal formally submitted by APOGLA President Brod Jobee Jovellanos on behalf of APOGLA. This realignment includes extending the term of the incoming ACNA President to three years beginning with the 2027 elections. The Council also witnessed the induction of Brod Sancho Sy, administered by ACNA Past President Dony Rondilla, as the new Press Relations Officer of ACNA.

As the sun set, the energy shifted to celebration with the ACNA '70s Gala. Attendees embraced the theme in full spirit, donning retro attire and dancing the night away to classic hits. A highlight of the evening was the ceremonial turnover of the Convention Key, symbolizing the official handover of hosting duties to APO Toronto for the 2027 ACNA Convention. The gala was filled with laughter, nostalgia, and nonstop dancing, and true to ACNA tradition, the celebration continued with another all-night after-gala fellowship at the hospitality suite.

The weekend concluded on Sunday, March 29, with a warm and hearty brunch send-off at Mang Felix Kitchen. Guests were treated to Filipino breakfast, providing the perfect setting for one last round of fellowship, storytelling, and photo opportunities. The next ACNA Fall Council Meeting will be hosted by APO Central Valley of California in Foster City, CA on September 4 - 6, 2026.

The success of the event was made possible under the leadership of APO Las Vegas President, Brod Joey Avisado. Despite being a small chapter in number, the dedication and determination of his team shone through in every detail of the event. Their efforts ensured that attendees experienced a truly memorable weekend - one that embodied the spirit of service, leadership, and brotherhood. - By Bro. Dony Rondilla

Message by Bro. Art Rivera, APO-ACNA President during APO-ACNA Spring Meeting 2026 at Four Queens Hotel & Casino in Las Vegas, NV

Good evening everyone, magandang gabi sa inyong lahat.

I just want to start by saying how great it is to see us all gathered this weekend. It really means a lot that you took the time to come out and be part of the APO (Philippines) Alumni Council of North America Spring Meeting weekend.

Thank you to everyone who traveled near and far to join us in Fabulous Las Vegas. Being here together, in the same ballroom, is something special, and it says a lot about how much you care about Alpha Phi Omega and this incredible organization.

I also want to take a moment to thank APO Las Vegas for hosting us. It's a city that knows how to bring people together and it's been a fantastic place for us to reconnect, share ideas, create memories and just enjoy being around one another. The "Fremont Street Experience," the Hospitality Suite, the fellowship and the endless stories and the laughter are aplenty.

To all of our alumni presidents and members of APO Alumni CNA, the Board of Directors, the Executive Officers, ACNA Organizers, ACNA Presidents, thank you, "Diyos ti Agngina". The work you do often happens behind the scenes, but it truly makes a difference. Your leadership keeps our alumni network strong and helps carry forward everything Alpha Phi Omega stands for.

And to our guests and friends who are here with us, welcome and "daghang salamat." We're really glad and delighted that you are here in our midst, you are part of what makes this gathering feel complete, glorious and meaningful.

Brod Chosy, Brod Larry and I missed the Golf Tournament but we know that you avid golfers had a wonderful time at the fairways and greens of Las Vegas Golf Club. APO Golf Club South Bay and APO Golf Las Vegas, thank you for your generosity to help fund our IHMDO. Golf is a beautiful yet challenging game and it is about Eagles, Birdies, Pars, Bogeys and Life's lessons.

For me, weekends like this are a reminder of why we stay connected long after our college years. It's about the friendships, the shared experiences and that ongoing commitment to leadership, friendship, and service.

So thank you again for being here, for showing up, and for continuing to be partners of this incredible journey. Indeed, together, we are stronger, together, everyone achieves more and together, we will make a difference in the lives of others. Together with Gie, my best friend, please accept our sincere appreciation.

Let us have a great weekend together. Cheers at Mabuhay ang Kapatirang Alpha Phi Omega!

And now, may I request Brod Sancho Sy, Brod Samuel Cuvin, Sis Janet Layao, Sis Jen Evnagelista, Brod Rady de la Cruz, Brod Edward Lago and Brod Raymund Liongson, APO Hawaii President to join us on the dance floor. Brod Raymund, please present the ACNA Convention Key to Sis Maricar David, President of APO Toronto, our hosts for the ACNA Biennial Convention on Labor Day Weekend 2027.

Sis Jen, please present our token of Appreciation to APO Las Vegas, President Joey and Event Chair Samuel, our gracious hosts of the Spring Meeting weekend.

Again, maraming salamat and now enjoy the rest of the evening, the music of the Bohol songbirds Band, put on your dancing shoes, show your groovy moves and fill the air with joy, laughter and fun!

FROM MY POINT OF VIEW

A Potpourri of Places and Events

By Bro. Dan E. Nino

I'm glad, the income tax season is finally over! My regular routine is somewhat back to normal: gardening, writing, reading, walking around our neighborhood and greenbelt and working out once a week.

However, I'm not totally spared with taxation because the next phase of my tax practice is also preparing taxes of nonprofit tax-exempt organizations like our well-oiled machine: APOGLA. Requesting gently our former treasurer to provide me our 2025 financial statement. Dealing with nonprofit corporations are less intense but also challenging. We deal not only with Internal Revenue Service, Franchise Tax Board but Secretary of State and Attorney General of California/Department of Justice and Registry of Charitable Trust — if organizations are registered in California.

Other normal things that I miss are participating in APOGLA's various activities for the past three months like our GMM, voluntary services and fellowships, among others.

There are also numerous topics to write about like my five-week vacation in the Philippines from January 3 to February 10 this year, wherein I had the opportunity to fellowship with our APO residents and alumni brods and sisses from Gamma Kappa (Ateneo) and Psi (CEU).

I also had the chance to travel to landmark tourist destinations of Taal, Batangas, Baguio City, Antipolo, Tanay, Taytay, Baras in Rizal province, Nueva Ecija's Pantabangan Dam and the exquisite Bougainvillea Farm.

In Baguio City which I haven't visited for four decades is still a tourist destination to reckon with although it's now too commercialized and crowded but thriving. I visited the usual popular tourist spots like Botanical Gardens, Mines View Park, Philippine Military Academy and the now-converted civilian tourist hub Camp John Hay. There are two new tourist spots in this City of Pines that are attracting visitors namely: the Igorot Stone Monument and Joel Cruz Mansion of the Afficionado perfume manufacturer fame near the entrance of Camp John Hay.

The owner and developer of the Igorot Stone Monument is also now popular as the buyer of one of the luxury cars of the notorious Discaya couple who were involved in the flood control fiasco.

I can't help but marvel at the beautiful and pristine beauties of our homeland's countrysides.

On another historic note, our beautiful City of Cerritos just made history with its five-member City Council designating Lynda Poblete Johnson, the first Filipino-American lady mayor of our city. She succeeded Frank Aurelio Yokoyama, another Filipino-American. Three members out of five council members are Filipino-Americans including former Mayor Mark Pulido who was our guest of honor and speaker when I was sworn in as incoming president of APOGLA. I attended the Mayoral Transition on April 13. I'm happy to serve our city as member of its City Celebrations Advisory Committee that is tasked of overseeing the 4th of July celebration, Water Lunar Festival, Festival of Friendship, Ubefest and Santa Sleigh Ride, among others.

As a retiree, I thought I could just fade away into oblivion or just sit on the sidelines in the confines and comfort of my home. I guess it was not meant to be.

When one is called for public service we have to embrace it no matter how preoccupied we are, no matter where we hide or whether our heads are buried into the sand.

I'm reminded of the wisdom of Plato: "If you do not take an interest in the affairs of your government, then you are doomed to live under the rule of fools."

I planned to be a public servant of my own hometown of Mangatarem, Pangasinan but God had other plans for me. I now serve my adoptive City of Cerritos on a different level.

It's always rewarding to serve in any capacity whether in government, civic clubs, church, or fraternal organizations. When we are gone, the next generation will emulate the positive deeds and impact we had accomplished in our lifetime - because we paved the way. Kahit pumanaw na tayo sa mundong ito, kung tayo'y nanilbihan, mayroon tayong pinagkatandaan.

On a personal note, I'm humbly honored to be elected by my peers in the media as president of the Philippine Global Media Group whose mantra is: "The Voice of the global Filipino diaspora." Our induction and gala night will take place on August 8 at Crown Plaza Hotel near LAX now Sonesta Hotel. – denino1951@gmail.com

GOINGS ON by Sis. Fely Logarta-Montecillo

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to all our Aries (April 1 -19) and Taurian (April 20 - May 20) Brods and Sisters! You deserve all the blessings in the world!

Cristine Koch, the first woman to travel to the moon Artemis mission, and mission specialist, gave her notion about their crew on its first media interview. She cited that a crew is an informal group of friends, a posse, a close-knit group of peers or a team of people who shares a common interest.

She opined that the whole world rejoiced in this mission and acted as one. Therefore, she said, the whole world at that time was a crew. This statement reminded me about us, APOGLA, a close group of peers, sharing a common interest. We are all united in whatever we do - in raising funds, blood donation, and other activities, we are always one. We are, therefore , a crew as defined by Cristine Kock!

Regrets. This was the overwhelming feeling that engulfed me when I learned of the passing of our dearly beloved Brod former Assemblyman Salvador "Buddy" Britanico. You see, I was working at the Interim Batasang Pambansa at the same time Brod Buddy was representing his district in Iloilo. I would see both him and his niece Cecil Kock (nee Ariete) almost every day not knowing Assemblyman Britanico was an APO brod.

It was only a few years ago that I learned this. As a matter of fact, upon being aware of this, I planned to visit him as soon as I'm able to have a vacation to Manila to let him know that we are both APO members, but alas and alack that was not to be so!

I am therefore, extending my heartfelt condolence to my friend Cecil and the immediate family of our beloved Salvador "Buddy" Britanico.

Congratulations to PP Brod Art Rivera and present ACNA President for the well-attended and highly successful ACNA Spring Meeting in Las Vegas last March 27 to March 29. Brod Art really has the Midas touch! Everything he touches turns into gold! We pray for your continued success Brod!

Watching Jokoy & Fluffy One Night Only @Sofi Stadium

Together with the Carbons, Calvarios & Linsangans, it's amazing to watch two stand up comedians sold-out the Sofi Stadium last March 21, 2026 with crazy storytelling. From dogs, to travels to Japanese bath rooms these two will make you laugh all night long!
